

On Campus Training Programme at KVK

A one day on campus training programme on fodder cultivation was organised by KVK at Kunzer on 3rd December 2016. Dr. Desh Beer Singh, Director ICAR-CITH, Srinagar was the chief guest of the programme. He urged the farmers to adopt new agricultural technologies to increase production and productivity. He also delivered lecture on improved temperate horticultural practices.

At this occasion seed of improved varieties of oat was distributed to the farmers for Front Line Demonstration., Dr. Manoj Kumar, Head, KVK delivered a lecture on improved fodder cultivation technologies. 20 farmers from different parts of the Tangmarg area participated in the programme.