

Training Programme on Fodder Cultivation at URI

A one day training programme on fodder cultivation was organised by KVK Baramulla at Dak Banglow, Lagama in Uri area near to Border are on 25th November 2016. At this occasion seed of improved varieties of oat was distributed to the farmers for front Line Demonstration. At this occasion Dr. D K Verma, Principal Scientist, IGFRI-RS, Srinagar, delivered a lecture on improved fodder cultivation technologies.

Earlier Dr. Manoj Kumar, Head, KVK delivered lecture on improved oat cultivation practices and compost preparation for better utilization of farm residues and farm yard manure to increase farm productivity and cleanliness. 35 farmers from different parts of the Uri area participated in the programme.